

Terms and Conditions for Research Briefing Abstract Submission

VESPIIA Limited
Suite 122, 175 Rokeby Road, Subiaco, WA 6008
hello@vespiia.org

Future Frontlines Conference – VESPIIA

By submitting an abstract and participating in the Future Frontlines Conference organised by the Veterans, Emergency Services & Police Industry Institute of Australia (VESPIIA), the author(s) agree to comply with and be bound by the following terms and conditions:

Submission and Selection

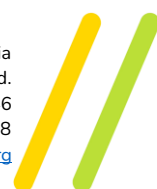

1. Eligibility
 - Abstract submissions must be relevant to the themes and strategic objectives of VESPIIA, including support, development, advocacy, and community building for Veterans, Emergency Services, Police, and their families.
2. Abstract Review
 - Submissions will be reviewed by the conference committee and relevant representatives of VESPIIA. The committee's decision regarding abstract selection is final.
3. Originality and Intellectual Property
 - Submitters warrant that their submission is original, does not infringe upon third-party copyrights, and that all necessary permissions or licences have been obtained.

Presentation and Publication

4. Presenter Obligations
 - Selected presenters must register and attend the conference at their own cost unless otherwise agreed in writing with VESPIIA.
 - Entry fee to the conference will be waived for 1 presenter.
 - Presenters must adhere to presentation time limits and guidelines provided by VESPIIA.
5. Recording and Distribution
 - Presenters consent to the recording (audio/video) of their research briefing unless explicitly requested otherwise.
 - Recordings may be distributed by VESPIIA via various digital platforms to conference attendees, VESPIIA members, and the broader public.
6. Publication and Dissemination
 - VESPIIA reserves the right to publish and disseminate submitted abstracts, presentation slides, and related materials in conference proceedings, the VESPIIA website, the Future Frontlines Papers Series, the Research and Resource Library, and other VESPIIA communications and publications.
7. Media and Promotional Use
 - VESPIIA may use presenters' names, images, biographies, abstract summaries, and presentation excerpts for promotional purposes and media activities associated with the conference.

Privacy and Confidentiality

8. Data Usage

- Personal information provided through abstract submissions will be handled according to VESPIIA's Privacy Policy and will be used solely for managing and promoting the conference.
9. Confidentiality and Ethics
- Submitters must ensure their abstracts comply with ethical standards and confidentiality requirements relevant to their research.

Liability and Responsibility

10. Indemnity
- Presenters agree to indemnify and hold harmless VESPIIA from claims or liabilities resulting from breach of intellectual property, unethical research practices, or any legal violation associated with their submission and presentation.
11. Alterations and Cancellations
- VESPIIA reserves the right to alter or cancel presentations or events within the conference program, including in response to unforeseen circumstances.
12. Withdrawal
- Presenters wishing to withdraw their submissions must notify VESPIIA promptly in writing.

Conflict of Interest

13. Declaration
- Presenters must disclose any potential conflicts of interest relating to their submission, research, or affiliations clearly at the time of submission and during their presentation.

Agreement

By submitting an abstract, presenters acknowledge they have read, understood, and agree to adhere to these Terms and Conditions. VESPIIA reserves the right to amend these terms at any time, notifying participants of significant changes.

